CUTTING DOWN THE LOAVES.
Hebrew Bakers Economizing on Account of Price of Flour.

New York, April 17.—It was admitted last night by Jacob Back, jr., the son of the president of the East Side Hebrew Bakers' association, that the 315 East Side bakers had reduced the size of the loaves of white bread from a pound to 15 and 14 ounces.

Because of the excitability of the east side people and the fear that there might be a repetition of the riots which greeted the rise in the price of meat two years ago, the action of the bakers in this respect has been kept secret. A meeting of the bakers scheduled for last night, which was called to discuss the situation, was abandoned but it is stated that the officers met secretly.

It was predicted by the son of the Bakers' association's president last night that the price of the short weight loaves would be increased to six cents very soon, and that if wheat went higher the price might be raised to 8 or even 10 cents.

The increase in the cost of flour from 25 to 37.50 a barrel has driven more than 30 East Side bakers out of business and it was predicted that many others would have to close as they asserted there was no profit even in the short weight loaves.

GREAT SHOW OF WARSHIPS.
Proposed to Invite 44 Nations to Fulton Hudson Celebration.

New York, April 17.—Joseph H. Choate was elected chairman of the Manhattan citizens' celebration for the Hudson-Fulton celebration at its formal organization, late yesterday in the city hall. Elliott Tuckerman was chosen secretary. The committee which was named by the mayor, it composed of 2,000 prominent men of Manhattan.

In accepting the chairmanship Mr. Choate said that as head of the committee on invitations he could announce that the forty-four nations with which the United States maintained diplomatic relations would be invited soon to send representatives and war ships to participate in the celebration. He predicted that it would be the greatest assemblage of war vessels in the world's history.

Time to Celebrate.
Bishop Ethelbert Talbot of the central Pennsylvania is a good story teller, and most of his yarns are on himself. One of his latest he has recounted at length in his new book, "My People of the Plains." It seems that the Bishop went on to a certain town in his diocese and was seated at dinner at the "hotel." A man in the far corner of the room called out, "Bishop, come here and eat with a fellow!" As the Bishop did not see it exactly in that light and as the man had apparently been imbibing over-freely he refused, whereupon his neighbor came over to him and said: "Well, then, Bishop, if you won't eat with me I'll eat with you." During the course of the meal he said:

"Bishop, are you going to talk with the boys here to-night?" Dr. Talbot told him that was the object of his coming. "Well," he added, "I am very glad, for God knows, these fellows here need it. You see, Bishop, the trouble with the boys here is that they drink to much."

He was obviously the last person to complain of the weakness of the part of his brethren, so the Bishop suggested: "Well, my friend, I am sorry to hear that, but if you will pardon me, it seems to me that you are suffering from that same trouble yourself now."

"You are right, Bishop, you are right, but when the Bishop comes to town a fellow has got to celebrate," was the reply. —Detroit Free Press.

New Suits have come tumbling in by every express. Mr. Morse made a lucky trip, for he found what we lacked and what the trade was calling for.

Our special orders on Tailored Suits are coming out fine this season. This is encouraging to those that have to have Suits made to order.

The arrangement of our Suit Department is such that now you can buy any kind of a ready to wear garment on one floor; as all Waists, Suits, Skirts, Jackets, House Dresses, Wrappers and Petticoats are here, all together.

Children's Colored and White Dresses are on this same floor, and just a word to say that the line is far ahead for style and fit of any Children's Dresses that we have ever received, and $1.00 buys a good wearing, well made Dress.

Hauman & Spilling's line of Children's Little Coats is just about right.
